YAMASAKU TURQUOISE

Food stylists around the world adore the organic handcrafted style and form embodied by the Yamasaku Turquoise collection. A reactive glaze imparts the premium stoneware dinnerware with a distinct turquoise hue, complemented by black/gold accents, which enhances the visual appeal of any cuisine. The timeless and incredibly contemporary traditional Japanese design remains unparalleled.

HAND- CRAFTED CUPS

Crafted by skilled artisans, these cups often showcase a harmonious blend of form and function, embodying the principles of wabi-sabi - an aesthetic that appreciates imperfections and impermanence. Whether made from porcelain, stoneware, or other materials, each cup reflects a unique artistic expression, with intricate designs, textures, and glazes that capture the essence of Japanese culture.

ZAHRA

The circular and symmetrical nature of the mandala is thought to evoke a sense of harmony and balance. These bowls often showcase meticulous hand-painting or intricate ceramic detailing, creating a mesmerizing visual impact. The use of vibrant colors and precise patterns adds to the aesthetic appeal, making these bowls not only functional but also cherished pieces of art.

KAWAII DISHES

Drawing inspiration from nature, these dishes often feature charming depictions of animals such as cranes, rabbits, and fish. The use of the classic blue and white color palette not only imparts a sense of elegance but also pays homage to the centuries-old Arita and Imari porcelain traditions. These small dishes, typically used for serving appetizers or condiments, blend functionality with artistry, adding a touch of whimsy to the dining experience.
