The Designs

Engi consists of 4 hand painted Japanese artworks. All telling their own story.

Seven Gods

The Seven Gods are among Japan's most beloved symbols of good fortune, prosperity, and happiness. Originating from a blend of Shinto, Buddhist, Taoist, and Hindu traditions, each deity represents a different blessing.

Lucky Cat

The iconic "Beckoning Cat," is one of Japan's most recognizable symbols of good fortune. Traditionally displayed in homes and businesses, the raised paw is believed to invite prosperity, happiness, and success.

Sumo & Tiger

Sumo & Tiger brings together two enduring symbols of Japanese strength and determination. The sumo wrestler represents discipline, tradition, and resilience, while the tiger embodies courage, power, and protection in Japanese art and folklore.

Kabuki Cat

The vibrant world of Kabuki, Japan's renowned classical theatre known for its dramatic performances, elaborate costumes, and striking face makeup. Reimagined as a charismatic feline performer, the Kabuki Cat blends centuries-old tradition with playful contemporary design.
